

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace.
Where there is hatred let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that I may seek not so much to be consoled, as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love. For it is by giving that we receive;
it is by losing that we find; it is by forgiving that we are forgiven; and it is by dying that we arise again to eternal life, in Jesus Christ
our Lord.

Amen

I Corinthians 12: 12-16

“For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body - Jews or Greeks, slaves or free - and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many, if the foot were to say, ‘Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body’, that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear were to say, ‘Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body’, that would not make it any less a part of the body. “

Jesus tells his disciples
"The Great Commission"

as his last and most important words

"Go and make disciples..." (Matthew 28: 19)

This time together will be about what it means to be an active, high energy, committed DISCIPLE of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is not about "joining church" as one would join a club; it's not about "putting your name on the rolls of the church", as if the Lord will check the rolls of Church of the Covenant when you get to heaven. Rather, it is about being challenged to move up a notch or two in relation to your commitment and your willingness to follow the Lord Jesus Christ wherever He may lead. That's my invitation to you.

Faithfully, Stu
